

Money you already earned leaks out of your business in three places. We build an AI agent for each one.

Not chatbots, agents: AI that picks up your phone, works your leads, and books real appointments inside the calendar and CRM you already run. Each is its own system, scoped and priced on its own. Start with the leak that's costing you the most.

1

CALLS YOU MISS

The AI Receptionist

Businesses miss over 50% of their calls. 85% of missed callers never call back, they call your competitor.

Answers in zero rings, 24/7. Qualifies the caller, books straight into your calendar, and warm-transfers anything that needs a human. Nights, weekends, lunch breaks: every call gets answered, not voicemail.

THE MATH

20 missed calls a month ×
$3,000 average job =
$60,000/mo exposed to whoever picks up first.

2

LEADS YOU'RE SLOW TO

Speed-to-Lead

Reply in 5 minutes and a lead converts several times better than at 30. The best-run operations answer in under 15 seconds.

A form fill on your website triggers an instant AI callback. Your lead hears a voice and books a slot while your competitors' voicemail is still ringing.

THE MATH

The lead you paid marketing dollars to generate is worth a fraction of that 30 minutes later.

3

LEADS YOU'VE FORGOTTEN

Lead Reactivation

Every old quote, past customer, and dead inquiry in your CRM is already-paid-for demand.

An agent texts your dormant list, holds real conversations, requalifies everyone daily, and hands you only the people ready to book. No manual follow-up, nothing goes cold.

THE MATH

1,000 old contacts → ~10%
reply → 8% of those book: new revenue, zero ad spend.

CLIENT, IN HIS OWN WORDS

Three months of follow-up, down to 1 hour a day

Benjamin Huang was raising capital with a 1,000-person list to work. The agent we built follows up with every lead daily and qualifies who's actually ready. Different industry, investors instead of customers, same machine as leak #3.

12h→1h
